Call to Worship† | Psalm 103:1-13 (all read bold print aloud)

Bless the LORD, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name!

Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,

who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

The LORD works righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed.

He made known his ways to Moses, his acts to the people of Israel.

The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever.

He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities.

For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;

as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us.

As a father shows compassion to his children,

so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him. (ESV)

Call to Confession

James 1:16-17

Confession of Sin

Father, every good and perfect gift comes from you. Everything that we have, we have received from you. Everything we need, we will receive from you. Life and breath, food and shelter, friends and family—all these come from your hand. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! Forgive us, Father, for so often forgetting our utter and complete dependence upon you for all things. Forgive us for thinking we can do life on our own. Forgive us for not giving thanks when things go our way. Thank you for Jesus, who lived a life of complete dependence upon you, His Father, and yet suffered the fate of the rebelliously independent and the ungrateful. Thank you that He bore our sin that we might receive your grace. Father, reorient our hearts to be openhanded, receiving all things from you: life and breath, forgiveness and grace—that having received, we would give thanks. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
