Call to Confession

2 Corinthians 4:3-6

Confession of Sin

Father, we confess that we are so often blind. We think so highly of ourselves, our religion, our morality. We are blind to our sin, blind to our unbelief, blind to our lostness. And because we are blind to these things, we are blind to our need of Jesus. And yet, we choose to remain blind, because sight is painful. Sight means admitting we don't have it all together. Sight means admitting we don't have it all figured out. Sight means admitting our ignorance and sin. Father, forgive us for our willful blindness and take it away. We ourselves are darkness; make us light in the Lord. Shine in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of your glory in the face of Jesus Christ. Holy Spirit, help us to take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather to walk as children of light, shining with the light of Jesus wherever we go. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
