Call to Worship† | Psalm 118:22-29

Leader: Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;

All: for his steadfast love endures forever!

Let Israel say,

“His steadfast love endures forever.”

Let the house of Aaron say,

“His steadfast love endures forever.”

Let those who fear the LORD say,

“His steadfast love endures forever.”

The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

This is the Lord’s doing;

it is marvelous in our eyes.

This is the day that the LORD has made;

let us rejoice and be glad in it. (ESV)

Confession of Sin

Father, we confess that we often seek to build our lives on something other than Jesus. We spend each day trying to make our lives better and easier, more pleasurable, profitable, safe, secure. To those ends we turn to the strength of men—it may be our parents, our friends, ourselves, but we turn to people for help instead of to you. We trust in our strengths, our wisdom, our talents, our riches, our reputation, our influence. But we know that while these may get us somewhere in life, we all face death, and all the powers of this age are nothing before the face of this last and greatest enemy. Father, we thank you for Jesus, who came not with sword or bow, but with righteousness and steadfast love. We thank you that He did battle with our great and last enemy and won, that just as sin brought death, so righteousness has done what all the powers of this age could not, broken the power of sin and death once and for all. We thank you for raising Jesus from the dead. And we thank you that He rose, not for Himself only, but for us. Father, help us to live, marveling at your goodness, rejoicing in your grace, and hoping in the power of the resurrection, longing for that great and last day when we will stand with Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen.
