SERMON REFLECTION

Genesis 31:17–55 · Living as Exiles; Straining Toward Exodus

How is the experience of Jacob similar to that of Adam, Abraham, Isaac, and, later on, Israel?

What troubles does pilgrimage/sojourning bring? What does our status as "exiles" or "sojourners" mean for our daily lives?

Deuteronomy 31:8 tells us that God will never leave our side. How does this knowledge affect our sojourning?

How have you experienced God's blessing-presence? How might God bless others through us as individuals and as a church family?

How does living with hope in the coming new creation shape our present pilgrimage in exile?

PRAY WITH US

Monday · That God would give Pastor Luke, Pastor Josué, Pastor Ethan, RUF Interns Tim and Hannah, the Navigators' Jordan and Brittany, and our officers words to speak and boldness in proclaiming the gospel in their teaching, preaching, and serving. (Ephesians 6:19)

Tuesday · That our congregation would have boldness in sharing the gospel with others. (Acts 4:31)

Wednesday · For the University of Illinois and our Champaign-Urbana community. (Jeremiah 29:7)

Thursday · That our congregation would discern the gifts that God has given them and use those gifts to serve one another. (1 Peter 4:10)

Friday · That we would come to church on Sundays with our hearts prepared for worship, and that we would listen and participate attentively. (Psalm 95:6)
